WHAT MAKES BALI SO SPECIAL

Bali, as the ‘Island of the Gods’ there is the combination of the friendly people, the natural attractions, the great variety of things to see and do, the year-round pleasant climate, and the absence of security problems. And then there is Bali’s special ‘magic’, which is difficult to explain. The moment you feel the magic of this island, you are addicted for the rest of your life.

CLIMATE

You can expect pleasant day temperature between 20 – 33 degrees Celsius or 68 – 93 degrees Fahrenheit year-around. The clothing recommended for outdoor purpose during this weather is light and thin clothing. Casual dress is acceptable for most situations and occasions but some establishments may require a more formal dress code, i.e. Cultural Fest

PASSPORT AND VISA

Any foreign visitors who want to visit Indonesia must have a valid passport at least for another 6 months. The government of Indonesia has changed its visa policy for foreign visitors effective February 1st 2004 by visiting Indonesia without any visa for nationals of following countries and territories: Brunei Darussalam, Chile, Hongkong, Macau, Malaysia, Morocco, Peru, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam. Citizens of the above countries will be issued on arrival a stay permit for 30 days free of charge upon presentation of a passport. This stay permit can not be extended or converted into another type of visa. Visa on Arrival (VoA) facility is now available for 21 of countries (please contact the nearest Indonesian Consulate for the visa application and further information), which valid 7-30 days upon arrival by air in few international airports. A 7-days visa costs USD 10 and 30-days visa costs USD 25.

Indonesian Rupiah (IDR) is the monetary unit in Indonesia. Notes come in denominations of IDR 100.000, IDR 50.000, IDR 20.000, IDR 10.000, IDR 5.000, IDR 2.000. Foreign currency and traveler’s cheques can be converted into Rupiah at authorized money changers or banks, however some banks do not have foreign exchange dealing on Saturdays. The exchange rate is subjected to market fluctuations approximately IDR 15.000. Passports are required when cashing in travelers’ cheques. A nominal commissions may be charged. Many places accept credit card such as Visa and Master however we strongly advice. ATMs are everywhere, which may connects to international banking networks, so you can withdraw cash in Rupiah from your home account. Look for those affiliated with your own ATM network, noted by signage on your card and the compatible ATM.

Electricity voltage is 220 voltage. There are two mobile phone networks: GSM & Internet Mobile. To make international calls, the access codes is +62 and Bali access code is +361

TIPPING

Most larger hotels and restaurants automatically add government tax and service charge of up to 21 percents to the bill. Tipping is unusual and you are not compelled to tip. However, if you like the service a tip 10-15 percents is appreciated. Carry small change with you as taxi drivers often have none. Airport or hotels porters expect tip per bag depending on the size and weight.
AROUND BALI
The shoppers among you will find Bali a treasure house of handicrafts and fine works or art. Those of you keen on delving into the island’s fascinating culture will have plenty opportunities, as colorful ceremonies and traditional performances occur with the regularity of sunrise.

DEPARTURE
Reconfirm your airline reservation 24 hours prior to departure. Not all international airlines require reconfirmation, but check your flight. Indonesian carriers frequently overbook due to peak seasons. Make sure you get the computer print-out from the airline office/travel agent that says you have seat. Seat assignments can not always be arranged in advanced. Arrive at the airport two hours prior to departure. An international departure tax is required in Rupiah as well as departure tax for domestic destination. Residents pay an additional fiscal tax.
