KCR 2019 was held from the 18th to 21st September 2019. There were about 44 Malaysian delegates to this congress. The 4-day congress included special sessions with Radiology Society of North America (RSNA), Asian-Oceanian School of Radiology (AOSOR), Korean Society of Magnetic Resonance in Medicine (KSMRM), Mongolian Radiological Society (MRS), Japan Radiological Society (JRS), The Korean Society for Radiation Oncology (KOSRO), The French Society of Radiology (SFR), The Korean Association for Radiation Protection (KARP), Korean Society of Artificial Intelligence in Medicine (KOSAIM), Korean Society of Emergency Radiology (KSER), Asian Society of Emergency Radiology (AsianER), Korean Society of Neuroradiology (KSNR), Singapore Radiological Society (SRS) and Korean Society of Imaging Informatics in Medicine (KSIIM).

It was a well-attended multi-track congress with speakers coming from every corner of the world.

Prof Kartini Rahmat from University of Malaya delivered a lecture titled “Role and limitations in breast cancer screening/screening mammography: how far can we go?” at the Joint Symposium with AOSOR session on Breast Cancer Screening in Asian Women.

Prof Norlisah Mohd Ramli, from University of Malaya delivered her oral presentation in the Neuroradiology Scientific Session on “Lipid Fraction from In-Oppose sequence as a Novel Biomarker for Predicting Survival Outcome for Glioma”. Dr Ch’ng Li Shyan from Hospital Sungai Buloh presented her paper on “Implementation of Split-bolus CT Protocol to Reduce Radiation in Trauma Patients” in the Abdomen Scientific Session.

Dr Nastassia Ong from Hospital Sungai Buloh won a Bronze award for her poster titled “Case Series: Radiological Findings of Dengue Haemorrhagic Fever”. A total of 32 posters presented in this congress were from Malaysia.
On the 20th of September, a grand and sumptuous Congress Dinner was held at Harmony Ballroom of the Intercontinental Hotel COEX in Seoul.

College of Radiology, Academy of Medicine of Malaysia, as a member of the Asian-Oceanian Society of Radiology (AOSR) was given the opportunity to promote the upcoming Asian-Oceanian Congress of Radiology (AOCR 2020) at the AOSR Booth.

On the 19th of September, a grand yet intimate President’s Dinner was held at Raum in Gangnam, Seoul. The dinner was attended by invited guests and members of the faculty.

Malaysians at KCR2019